Commissioner for Patents

PETITION FOR REVIVAL OF AN APPLICATION FOR PATENT
ABANDONED UNINTENTIONALLY UNDER 37 CFR 1.137(B)

Dear Sir:

This is in response to a Notice of Abandonment received in connection with the above-identified patent application. A copy of the Notice of Abandonment which was mailed on June 25, 2008, is attached.

On November 8, 2007, a response to a non-final Official Action mailed August 8, 2007, was timely filed with the USPTO via the electronic filing system. Such response was followed on November 13, 2007 by a submission containing a revocation of all previous Powers of Attorney, a change of correspondence address to that associated with Customer Number 73723, a new Power of Attorney for the names associated with Customer Number 73723, and a Statement Under 37 CFR 3.73(b). Copies of these submissions and their electronic receipts are attached.

A subsequent non-final Official Action, mailed December 12, 2007, was directed to the old correspondence address -- that of a former named legal representative. Absent receipt of such Official Action, no response was filed. A Notice of Abandonment for failure to respond to an outstanding Official Action was mailed to the same incorrect correspondence address on June 25, 2008. This notice was forwarded to our attention and received in our office on July 8, 2008.

Applicant's failure to timely respond to the December 12, 2008 Official Action was entirely unintentional and was in part driven by a mailing error on the part of the USPTO. This petition respectfully requests revival of the abandoned application.

The Commissioner is hereby authorized to charge the revival fee to Deposit Account No. 50-2289, and also charge any fee deficiency or credit overpayment to said account.

Respectfully submitted,
